HONEY MERIDIAN

Honey Meridian asserts a sound that's all its own. Pop songs of sorts, glitching through obliterated guitar and vocals in an oddly haunting, romanticized manner. Deconstructed guitars gently plucking each arpeggio against a backdrop of beautifully saturated textures and field recordings. Yakovlev's work operates in the realm of melody and form but his ear for the unusual allow him to carefully counterbalance the accessible with the experimental.

We appreciate your support and look forward to your feedback.
